*We need to differentiate between
good guys and bad guys.
If we don't know how to differentiate,
we will instead become the bad guy.*

We need to allow and accept others to educate us and correct it once we know our mistake, so that we can be salvaged.

Some people cannot differentiate between the good guys and the bad guys. If someone gives you money, you will think that this person is a good person. Even if he gives you so much money, yet he does not teach you how to utilize it well, would you think he is a good person? He may not be a good person.

A person who gives you money and then teaches you how to use the money is a good person. If you do not know how to clearly differentiate between the good guys and the bad guys, in turn you would become a bad person.

You have to remember that BAITIANGONG is about teaching others the right thing, and you must change so that you can be saved. If you do not want or accept others to teach you, and do not change, then you cannot be saved. You have to differentiate between a good person and a bad person.
